

MEET THE PRIMES: A&E

Caltrans' Office of Business and Economic Opportunity invites you to participate in a "Meet the Primes" event for architectural and engineering (A&E) consultants. This is a unique opportunity to meet directly with several prime consultants that have received Caltrans contracts and gain insight about what they look for in qualified subconsultants. This event will include:

- Question and answer session with a panel of prime consultants.
- Presentations from Caltrans' Division of Procurement and Contracts-A&E Office and Independent Office of Audits and Investigations to discuss A&E contracting requirements.
- Opportunities to meet with prime consultants and other subconsultants to exchange information.

Advance registration is required. Click here to register.
